BE OPEN!

“Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, “Ephphatha,” that is, “Be opened.” - Mark 7.34

As a kid I remember loving the old movies that centered around genies and the mysterious east! “The Thief of Baghdad,” “The Flying Carpet,” or the “The 7 Voyages of Sinbad” all would equally entertain. And what about “Arabian Nights,” where the secret phrase would allow you entry into a magical reality - - Open Sesame!

Open Sesame! To be opened was to reveal the secrets that lay within. To be opened was to allow the story to continue in a new and marvelous way. To be opened was the first step in a new relationship that was about to unfold. In the Gospel of Mark, there is a man who cannot hear or speak and his friends ask for him to be healed and we are told that Jesus looking up to heaven, sighed and said to him, “Ephphatha,” that is, “Be opened.” And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. (Mark 7.33-35)

The season of Lent which begins on Ash Wednesday (February 17) is a time for us to be opened. It is not always by intention but we can often find ourselves feeling closed off to God and the spiritual realities of our life. We become so busy and overwhelmed - especially this year - that we find ourselves stuck and shut off.

Let’s use our Lenten time to be opened to the workings of the Holy Spirit. Open Our Eyes, Lord! Paul saw the light of Christ shining around him on the road to Damascus. As individuals and communities, what do we have difficulty seeing? How does our perspective change when we view the world through the eyes of Christ? Consider praying for God to help you ‘see’ as God sees the world!

Open Our Hands, Lord! We use our hands to pick up a child, to serve a meal, to play an instrument, to wipe away a tear. Jesus used his hands for healing and for deeds of great power, and the psalmist reminds us that we are always held fast in God's hands. How might we open our hands to serve God and neighbor?

Open Our Hearts, Lord! How might we begin to have hearts that are filled with compassion and caring for others; not just turned in on our own selfish desires? Kindness and hospitality can open us up to the realities of God.

Open Sesame! Ephphatha!
May it be so with us!
Peace! Pastor Jeff

Ministry

Reverse Advent Project

After Christmas, a team sorted and transported the donations from our Reverse Advent boxes to the food pantry. Your incredible combined generosity resulted in approximately $3,700 worth of food, hygiene products, and winter gear that will be distributed to those in need by the Churches of Marion Food Pantry. THANK YOU to everyone who participated by filling a box!

Sanitizing Sprayer

As we move forward with in-person worship, we are looking for volunteers who would like to be trained to use our electrostatic sprayer in the sanctuary between worship services on Sunday mornings. If you are willing to help, please contact marcia@LCRMarion.org.

Blood Drive

Share the gift of life with people in need in our community. You can choose an appointment time between 2:00 and 6:30 pm on Thursday, February 25th. Call Bob Wolter at 377-5126 or the church office (377-4689).

January & February Mission Envelopes

...will go to FLY (Feeding Lunches to Youth). There are local students who rely on the hot lunch program in their schools for their main meal of the day. So when there is no school, there is no meal for them. There are 6 congregations that take part in this meal program by making sandwiches, sacking the lunch bags, delivering and passing out the lunches, and returning the leftovers. Your donations are so appreciated and needed.

Thanks also for your mission giving in November & December. A check was sent to the Catherine McAuley Center in the amount of $725.

Tech Volunteers Needed

As we continue with online worship, we are looking for more volunteers to train on the new livestream technology for Sunday morning worship services and at other times. Contact cari@lcrmarion.org to find out more.

Churches of Marion Food Pantry

Feel free to bring your food donations to the church on Sunday mornings or during the week from 9 am to 4 pm. (No clothing at this time, please.) Thank you for your generous gifts of time, food donations, and checks that allow the pantry to continue serving! The Pantry is at 864 - 12th St. in Marion; it is open for distributions on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1-3 pm.

Volunteers: We're always looking for strong people with trucks who would be able to haul large loads of food during the daytime. Please contact Cari at the church if you can help.

Fresh Start Ministries

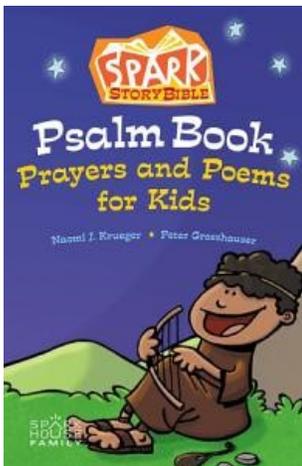

We received a Thank You note the other day from Fresh Start Ministries for our recent donation of $1,000. Thank you so much for your faithful support of LCR's budget, which allows us to reach out to valuable organizations in our community like the Jail Ministry!

Current Sunday School Series

Find us on the LCR website to join in on our weekly online content. Right now we are studying our way through the Psalms with prayers, poems and activities galore! As part of this series, we want all families to have a copy of the Psalm book at home. There's still plenty of time in this series to join in. Pick one up in the gathering space now, or contact Jessi to have one delivered to your home.

New Sunday School Opportunities COMING SOON!

Keep an eye on the church website and Sunday School email to learn more about our next opportunity for in-person Sunday School, coming soon!

WNL will continue in-person assigned small groups at 6:00 pm throughout Lent. We will not, however, meet on Ash Wednesday. WNL will have students gather on alternate weeks. We are now meeting in the Fellowship Hall, so students will need to be dropped off at the front door and picked up at the Fellowship Hall side door after WNL.

For students who want to touch base online instead, there is a Zoom check-in at 7:15 pm on Wednesday nights.

Feel free to contact coordinator Jill Hansen with any questions - jill@lcrmarion.org.

WNL students made some cookies to take home for our first night back after Christmas Break.

First Communion: A Place for YOU!

We will be offering First Communion instruction for children and parents in early March. Please be on the lookout for an online sign-up to register your interest OR you can call the church office to be put on the list. First Communion instruction is targeted toward children in the 4th grade. This year we are mindful of and open to those who may not have had the opportunity to participate last year due to pandemic concerns. At the Lord's Table, there is always a place for you!

Thank you to the Schaldecker family for coming in and helping to prepare the tie-blankets for the Cedar Valley Humane Society! The blankets will be WNL's February service project.

Small Group Bible Studies

Now that winter is here, why not join one of our bible study groups to increase your understanding and enjoyment of the bible and other faith-based media? All our groups welcome new members; many include a Zoom option. Face masks & distancing are rigorously maintained. Please join us!

Donna Dennis (2nd & 4th Thursdays @ 6:30 pm) This mixed group dives deep into short scripture readings daily. We summarize our thoughts on paper and then meet on Zoom to share our discoveries.

Wednesday Bible Study

Pastor Jeff leads us on a weekly reflection of the upcoming lessons for Sunday morning. There is no better way to prepare for worship than to be in conversation with the scriptures for the day. Feel free to come whenever it works into your schedule or become a regular! Your thoughts and insights will help enlighten the weekly sermon and prepare you to get more out of worship. This is an in-person study at the church, so bring your mask and we will social distance.

UNITY stand in

Black History Month

This past year Pastor Nate and Aaron Schutte began a conversation with a group here at LCR dedicated to social justice and racial equity through community outreach and engagement. They began meeting in May 2020, participated in the United Way's 21-Day Equity Challenge this fall, and began partnering with other area churches and the Marion Alliance for Racial Equity in December 2020. They helped to collaborate with the MLK Day celebration video (https://youtu.be/Q_j0CPXiYX8), and will continue to work together during Black History Month and beyond. They would love to have you involved in joining in the next conversation or shared learning opportunities! Contact either Pastor Nate or Aaron or the church office for more information.

To get involved this month:

1) View "The Black Church" on Iowa PBS on February 16 and 20 at 8:00 pm. "The Black Church: This is our story. This is our song," is hosted by Henry Louis Gates Jr.

See <https://www.pbs.org/weta/black-church/> for details.

2) You can still view all the material from the "21 Day Equity Challenge" hosted by the United Way here in Central Iowa. The 21-Day Equity Challenge is a powerful opportunity to develop a deeper understanding of how inequity and racism affect our lives and our community.

<https://www.unitedwaydm.org/equity-challenge>

3) Take part in "Equity Conversations: Creating a Community of Belonging," based on the 21-day Equity Challenge, on February 2, 9, 16, and 23 from 6:30-8:00 pm via Zoom. "Creating a Community of Belonging" is hosted by United Way of East Central Iowa and The Cedar Rapids Civil Rights Commission every Tuesday evening in February. Please register in advance for these conversations (you only need to register once) -

Fellowship

LCR Book Club

Hello Ladies,

No, you are not seeing things - the LCR Monthly Book Club is back! We'll get together Tuesday, February 16 at 6:30 pm (3rd Tuesday) and meet in the sanctuary. Some other groups are meeting in-person AND on-line through Zoom at the same time. If anyone is interested in taking part through Zoom at home, let me know and we'll get it set up.

I will be picking up a list from the library of the current book club kits to pass out to everyone, but for this month, I chose "A Man Called Ove" by Fredrik Backman. The reviews say 'light-hearted and even some romance.' How appropriate for February! I'll drop off the library tote at the church office soon, and send an email to everyone that the books are available for pick-up. New people are always welcome in our group - contact me at sherrillamorrison@gmail.com to get on our email list.

Hope to see you on the 16th. Don't forget your masks and stay safe!! - Sherrill

Building Policy Update

If you are using the LCR campus outside of regular business hours, please lock all doors once your group has arrived. This will help to ensure a safe and secure environment for everyone.

We are blessed at LCR with facilities that allow us to gather safely and practice social distancing! We gather in-person on Wednesday evenings at 7:00 pm, alternating each week between the 7th grade and 8th grade classes. We also have on-line Confirmation videos available, and they are posted on the LCR web page.

Our focus for the year is on the scriptures and each of the Confirmands will know the answers to these and many other questions. I invite you to see if you know as much as a Confirmation student! Are you ready??

- * How many books are in the Old Testament?
Can you name them?
- * How many books are in the New Testament?
Can you name them?
- * The Hebrew Bible or Old Testament is often divided into three main categories. Can you name them? Can you explain what you will find in each of the categories?
- * What are the first 5 books of the Old Testament?
What do we call those first five books?
- * Where do you find the Ten Commandments in the Bible?
- * Where do you find the story of Jesus in the scriptures?
- * Who is the Apostle Paul, and what books did Paul write?
- * Where do you find the story of the birth of the church in the Bible?
- * How does the Bible present the story of salvation from the Genesis to Revelation?
- * What is the Law? What is the Gospel?

Together we are discussing these, and many other questions, as we study scripture together. However, Confirmation is about so much more than answering questions about scripture. Our hope is to help the kids understand how the scriptures impact their daily lives through in-person service projects and opportunities for faith reflection.

Teaching Confirmation is one of the greatest honors I have ever been granted and I am humbled and grateful that you have allowed me to share in the faith journey of these future leaders of LCR.

Yours in Christ, Pr. Nate
