Lutherans in the Holy Land -- Examples of Christ's Love

The war in Gaza and the broader Israeli-Palestinian conflict makes life extremely challenging for Palestinians. Check-points and additional borders in the West Bank are increasingly difficult to navigate, and violence puts more lives at risk. LWF continues to advocate for peace and justice at the global level, while providing health care and vocational training programs through its Jerusalem Program, including the Augusta Victoria Hospital in East Jerusalem, as well as support to the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land (ELCJHL).

The Lutheran World Federation (LWF) Program in Jerusalem runs the Vocational Training Center in Beit Hanina and a second one in Ramallah, in the West Bank. Ms. Sieglinde Weinbrenner, LWF representative for the region (whom our LCR Holy Land travelers meet at Augusta Victoria Hospital) emphasized that "Vocational training has been at the heart of LWF's work, empowering thousands with skills and livelihood opportunities."

Please pray for our Lutheran witness in the Holy Land.
